

Winnebago reservation in Minnesota, and should it be impracticable to make such allotments within the limits of said reservation on good, agricultural lands, then they may be made on any public lands of the United States subject to sale at private entry within the State of Minnesota. And the said Winnebago Indians, and all others being members of said tribe lawfully residing in the State of Minnesota, shall hereafter be entitled to receive their pro rata distributive proportion of all annuities in goods, money or property, and any other moneys to which said tribe is or may be entitled under law or treaty now in force, at their homes in Minnesota, the same as though they had removed west and settled with the western Winnebagos.

Sec. 10. And be it further enacted, That if at any time hereafter any of the said Indians shall desire to become citizens of the United States, they shall make application to the Judge of the district court of the United States for the district of Minnesota, and in open court make the same proof and take the same oath of allegiance as is provided by law for the naturalization of aliens, and shall also make proof to the satisfaction of said court that they are sufficiently intelligent and prudent to control their affairs and interests; that they have adopted the habits of civilized life, and have for the last five years previous thereto, been able to support themselves and families; whereupon they shall be declared by said court to be citizens of the United States, which declaration shall be entered on record, and a certificate thereof given to said party. On the presentation of said certificate to the Secretary of the Interior with satisfactory proof of identity, he may at the request of such person or persons, cause the lands held by them to be conveyed to them by patents in fee simple, with power of alienation, and may at the same time cause to be paid to them their proportion of all the moneys and effects of said tribe held in trust by or under the provision of any treaty or law of the United States. And on such patents being issued, and such payments being ordered to be made, such persons shall cease being members of said tribe, and thereafter the land so patented to them shall be subject to levy, taxation, and sale, in like manner with the property of other citizens.

Sec. 11. And be it further enacted, that the eastern band of the Cherokee Indians, by that name and style be, and they are hereby, authorized and empowered to carry on a suit or suits in law or equity in the district or circuit courts of the United States against the present or former Indian agent or agents of said band, their administrators, executors, and heirs, and against the trustees of such agent or agents, their administrators, executors, curators or trustees for all suits, causes of suit or rights in law or equity that said band may have against them or either of them; and the law of limitation shall apply to such claims, causes of action, and rights from and after the day this act takes effect. It shall be the duty of the district attorneys and the Attorney General of the United States to institute and prosecute all suits, cause for which may arise under this section.

Sec. 12. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Great and Little Osage Indians shall agree thereto, in such manner as the President may prescribe, it shall be the duty of the President to remove said Indians from the State of Kansas to lands provided or to be provided for them for a permanent home in the Indian Territory, to consist of a tract of land in compact form equal in quantity to one hundred and sixty acres for each member of said tribe, or such part thereof as said Indians may desire to be paid for out of the proceeds of the sales of their lands in the State of Kansas, the price per acre for such lands to be procured in the Indian Territory not to exceed the price paid or to be paid by the United States for the same. And to defray the expenses of said removal, and to aid in the subsistence of said Indians during the first year, there is hereby appropriated out of the treasury, out of any money not otherwise appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, the sum of fifty thousand dollars, to be reimbursed to the United States from the proceeds of the sale of the lands of the said Indians in Kansas, including the trust lands north of their present diminished reservation, which lands shall be open to settlement after survey, excepting the sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections, which shall be reserved to the State of Kansas for school purposes, and shall be sold to actual settlers only, said settlers being heads of families, or over twenty-one years of age, in quantities not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres, in square form, to each settler, at the price of one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre; Payment to be made in cash within one year from date of settlement or of the passage of this act; and the United States, in consideration of the relinquishment by said Indians of their lands in Kansas, shall pay annually interest on the amount of money received as proceeds of sales of said lands, at the rate of five per centum, to be expended by the President for the benefit of said Indians, in such manner as he may deem proper. And for this purpose, an accurate account shall be kept by the Secretary of the Interior of the money received from sale, and the amount received prior to the 1st day of November of each year shall be the amount upon which the payment of interest shall be based. The proceeds of sale of said land shall be carried to the credit of said Indians on the books of the treasury, and shall bear interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum; Provided that the diminished reserve of said Indians in Kansas shall be surveyed under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior as other public lands are surveyed, as soon as the consent of said Indians is obtained as above provided, the expense of said survey to be paid from the proceeds of sale of said lands.

Sec. [13.] And be it further enacted, That there be, and is hereby, appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, as compensation to Osages for the stock and farming utensils of the treaty of January eleven, 1839, and which were only in part furnished $20,000, and as compensation for the saw and grist mill[s] which the United States agreed by said treaty to maintain for them fifteen years, $10,000; which sums shall be expended, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior in the following manner; twelve thousand dollars in erecting agency buildings, a warehouse, and blacksmith's dwellings, a blacksmith shop, and the remaining eighteen dollars in the erection of a school-house and church, and a saw and grist mill at their new home in the Indian Territory.

Approved, July 15, 1870.

Notice!

All Persons are cautioned against purchasing or negotiating a certain Promissory Note for one thousand five hundred dollars, given by me to Simon R. Chambers, dated April 7th, 1870, and payable on the first of January 1871, as the said note was obtained from me by fraud.
